Oceanographer Dr Daniel Stanley, went to the Delta to drill for samples of mud and silt to see if the ash could have reached Egypt. Due to the July 9-13 scale of this comment community, we are not able to give each post the same level of attention, USA we have preserved this area in the interests of open debate. Thus the commitment to non-hierarchical collegial structures is about generating common vision, stimulating knowledge generation and harnessing creativity and encouraging individual and collective responsibility.
