If the desire and the thoughts are so wrong, why not just masturbate and get rid of them? There are moments in each season when a head coach declares what type of team he's leading. In their abundance, they are also the marks of labor; artistic means employed with great effort, iron discipline and determination, demanding our respect and touching us. And all of them are shameful - the secrecy of those who indulge in them betrays that fact more clearly than anything else. Romans Prayer and confession can free us from the burden of impurity.
